About Me

I'm Nuhamien

I'm a 20-year-old Software Engineering student currently enrolled in my third year at Addis Ababa University's AAIT Campus. My journey in this fascinating field began as a freshman, and since then, my passion for software engineering has grown deeper. Over the past two years, I have immersed myself in a variety of courses, gaining a comprehensive understanding of software development principles and practices. I am dedicated to pursuing my dreams and continuously expanding my knowledge in software engineering.
